

April 2017

Hey, cut that out again! We did outstanding with our Fall Contests (raising over $1400 from Box Tops) so keep an eye out for them and keep cutting this Spring. Do you think we can beat it?

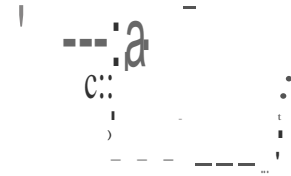

We will now be having our “Boys vs. Girls” school-wide contest. Just send in as many Box Tops as you can to help your team win. We will be tallying box tops beginning Monday, April 3rd. This contest will run from now until Friday, May 19th. The winning team will get bragging rights and a special day to celebrate with a free dress down day!!! Only those students who participated will be allowed to dress down and no NUT cards will be allowed on that day. The winning team will also have their t-shirt worn by Mr. Stein for a day: either “Boys Rule this School!” or “Girls Rule this School!”

Keep watching as we report which team is in the lead, watch the website for the current standings! Our new Box Tops Contest is so exciting and fun that it is sure to be a blast! Let’s see who rules St. Mel’s Catholic Academy!!! Boys? Or Girls?

Your children get the reward from all your hard work cutting and collecting Box Tops! You can send the Box Tops in, using the attached Collection Sheets make sure to include your child’s name and grade. Thanks for your amazing support! Let the battle begin!
